From: N 100 178/300

Received:

From Nikolaevsk, headquarters of the Army District, of the Red Army N 190 3/III.4.

To all offices concerned

February 29, we occupied the town of Nikolaevsk after the Japanese, having accepted our following demands, concluded peace. The first — unconditional implementation of the Lieutenant-General Siromidzu's declaration by the Japanese command. The second — the disarmament of the white-guard detachment of the town of Nikolaevsk and the handing over of all its armament and equipment, the place for the handing over may be indicated by us additionally. The third — all the posts before our entry into the town and their replacement must be held by the Japanese. The fourth — after having fulfilled the above-mentioned the Japanese troops will deliver everything to our units and occupy the quarters that were indicated to them; the question of the quarters may be jointly solved by the Japanese and our command, the white guard detachment has completely laid down arms; so far about 300 rifles, 4 three-inch guns and shells for them, 3 searchlights belonging to the rest of the surrendered battalion, companies are being formed, important counter-revolutionaries and all officers have been arrested, three of them shot themselves, colonel Medviodev the one who was most guilty, poisoned himself, the mutilated body of the bearer of the flag of truce comr. Orlov, who was tortured to death by the Japanese and the whiteguards, was found with his eyes put out, his nose and heels burnt, his back slashed; autopsy performed in the presence of the representatives of foreign consulates in order to establish the atrocity act of the Japanese committed in violation of the International law concerning the bearing of a flag of truce; an investigation is being conducted as to the participants in the atrocity act.
